

All the Shadows take one step closer to Pa-Hong-Hong and San King Jr.

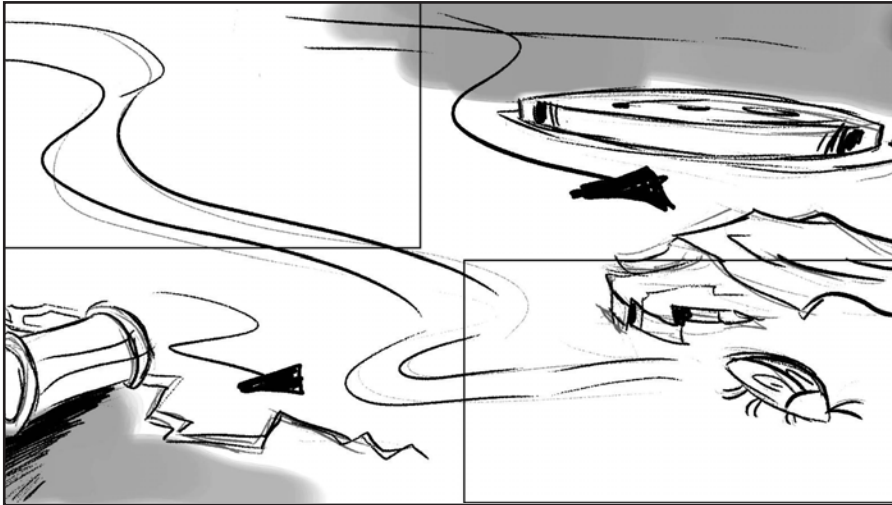

Shadow
Well, we couldn't help but notice that the two of you are living breathing things.

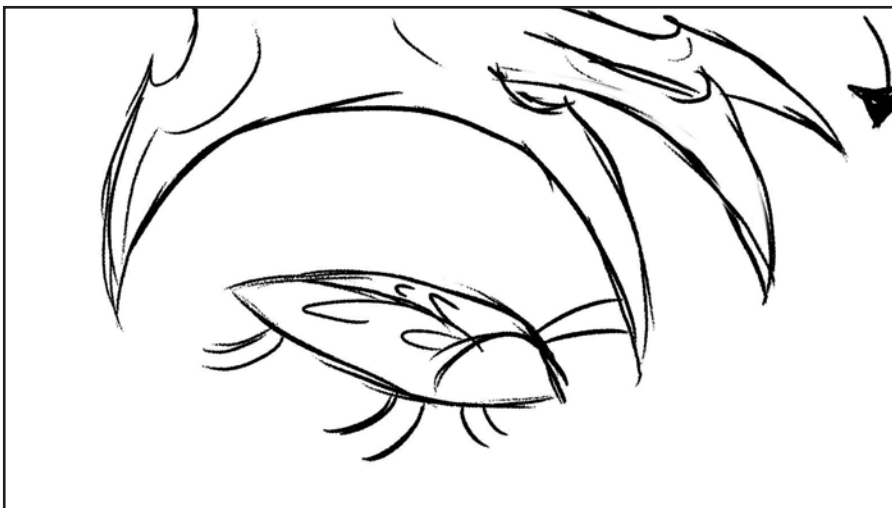

San King Jr.
Yes, aren't YOU living things?

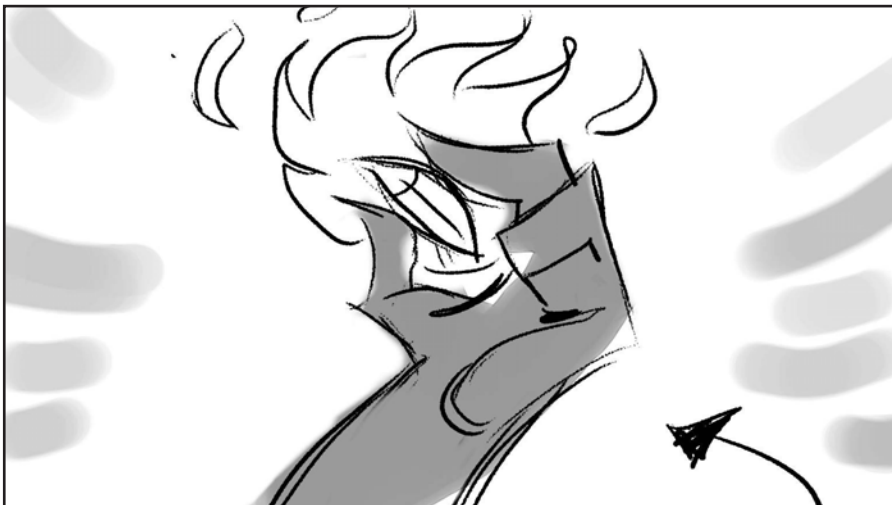

Shadow
No, we are all beautiful combinations of smoke and oil. WE aren't alive, but like flame, we consume living things!

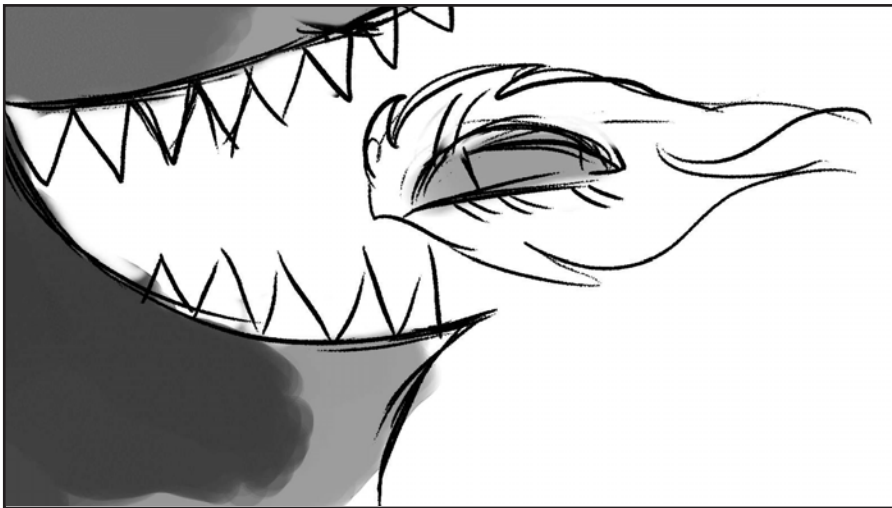

Cut to: A cockroach skittering along the ground... The camera follows it through the rubble.

A hand reaches into the shot and grabs the cockroach.

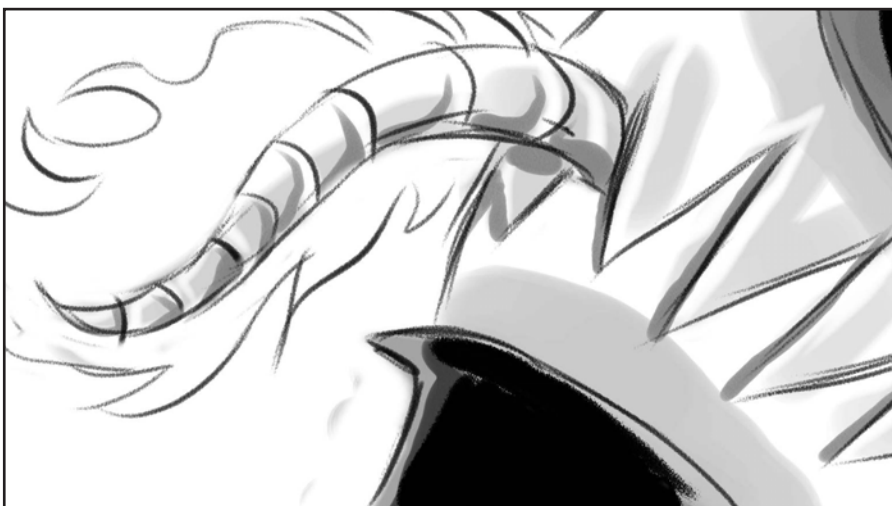

The hand lifts the roach into the air as it bursts into flame.

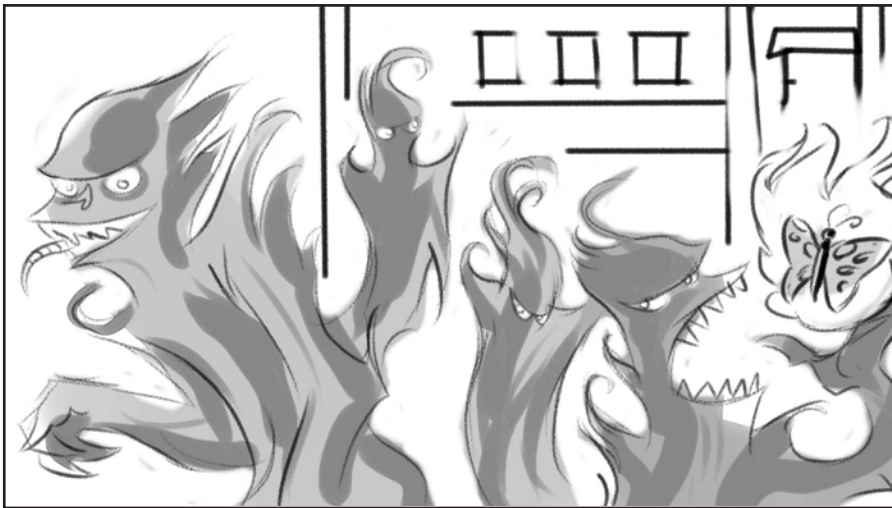

The cockroach catches on fire as the Shadow throws it into his mouth.

The Camera pulls back to reveal the hand of another Shadow holding a rat that has also burst into flames.

Cut to Extreme CU of the Shadow swallowing the burning rat.

Extreme CU of the teeth gnashing the butterfly.

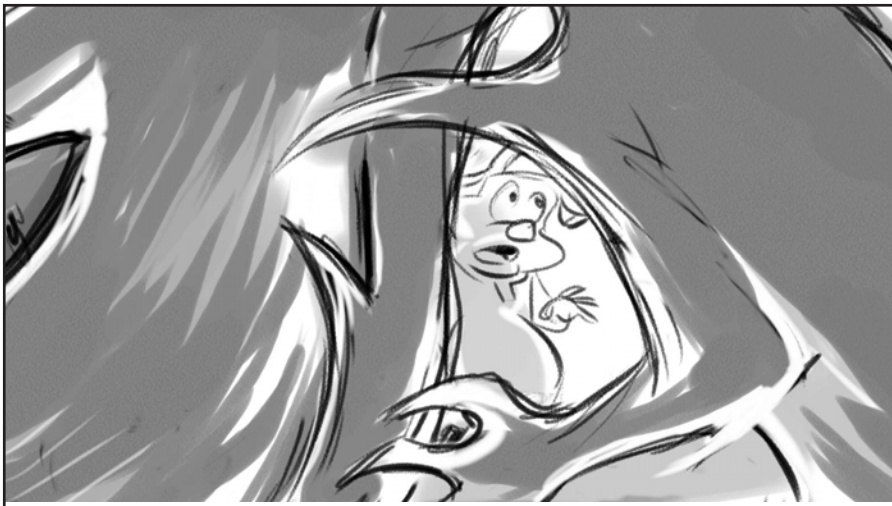

Shadows
(together)

We consume ALL living things... and you little creatures are warm and alive...

The Shadows close in around San King Jr. and Pa Hong-Hong

The Shadows move closer...

until they completely surround the heroes, leaving no escape.
